Description

Enjoy a peaceful escape in this beautiful chalet located in the quiet and exclusive area of Canutells, just a short stroll from its stunning sandy beach. Set within a generous private plot, the property is surrounded by greenery and offers complete privacy, making it ideal for a relaxing holiday. The house features several comfortable double bedrooms, including one situated on the upper level with its own private entrance — perfect for guests seeking additional independence. With two bathrooms and bright, well-appointed living spaces, the home is ideally suited to families or groups looking for comfort and ease throughout their stay. Outdoor living is one of the property's key attractions. Guests can enjoy a spacious garden, private swimming pool and barbecue area, along with pleasant sea views in the distance that enhance the Mediterranean ambience. A utility area and an outdoor shower provide added practicality after a day spent at the beach or by the pool. An excellent choice for a relaxing seaside holiday, combining privacy, comfort and a highly desirable location in one of the island's most charming coastal settings.
