Description

Welcome to 80 Radiance way, a beautiful modern farmhouse tucked away on a quiet street in the popular neighborhood of Wyndwater. This home includes five bedrooms, three full baths, a first floor powder room, and a dedicated office so there is ample space for living, working and playing. The bright two-story foyer opens to a thoughtfully designed main living area. The kitchen features a 9-foot island with seating and quartz countertops, connecting seamlessly to the dining area and living room to create an open and functional layout. The first floor primary bedroom provides privacy and comfort with an oversized hand-tiled shower with bench, private water closet and walk-in closet. Upstairs via the open staircase, you will find four additional bedrooms each featuring their own access to shared full baths with dual vanities. The fifth bedroom also functions well as a bonus, guest or media room. This floorpan provides plenty of convenient storage via walk-in storage and pull down attic access. A four-panel door off the living room leads to a large screened in porch overlooking the backyard, which borders a wooded community and is perfect for relaxing and enjoying the coastal Carolina sunsets. Residents of Wyndwater enjoy access to a community pool with updated amenities, sidewalks, fishing docks, and scenic green spaces. Centrally located in Hampstead, this home is just minutes from Topsail schools, Kiwanis Park, public boat ramps, and the area's beautiful beaches.
