Description

Step into this character-filled triplex just blocks from Gonzaga University, where classic charm and everyday livability come together. Fresh exterior paint enhances its welcoming curb appeal, while timeless architectural details reflect the home's original character. The main-floor residence offers a warm, spacious layout ideal for comfortable living, complete with high ceilings, abundant natural light, and charming original touches. Upstairs and lower units provide flexibility for extended living, guests, or the option of additional rental income. Whether you envision it primarily as a beautiful place to call home with supplemental income, or a long-term investment with residential appeal, this property offers versatility in an exceptional location.
