Description

Make 9 N. Elliott Avenue your new address. This impeccably maintained residence offers distinguished curb appeal and a thoughtfully designed layout. The main level provides generous, well-defined spaces ideal for both formal and informal gatherings. A refined living and dining area features a fireplace and expansive windows that invite natural light throughout. The centrally positioned kitchen includes an eating area, quartz countertops, and abundant storage, open to a spacious great room enhanced by a second fireplace. A sizable utility room, pantry, and half bath complete the main floor. The fenced backyard showcases mature landscaping that provides exceptional shade, privacy and raised garden beds. An additional asset is the distinctive potting shed, equipped with 200-amp power, offering versatile utility for various projects or hobbies. The upper level includes a bright and generously proportioned owner's suite with an updated three-quarter bath and an adjoining sitting room. Three additional bedrooms on the opposite side of the floor feature refinished original hardwood flooring and an updated full bathroom. Recent improvements—including new central heating and air conditioning, a newer roof, and fresh exterior paint—further elevate the property's appeal. Ideally located near schools, medical facilities, and shopping, and situated on a quiet, tree lined street, this home offers an exceptional combination of comfort, character, and convenience.
