Description

Nestled in the charming and highly sought-after community of Sierra Madre, this exceptional property offers two sophisticated mid-century modern homes on a sprawling lot with breathtaking panoramic views. Designed with architectural elegance and thoughtful details, both residences provide a unique blend of privacy, luxury, and seamless indoor-outdoor living. The primary home is a stunning 3-bedroom, 2-bath retreat that captures the beauty of its surroundings with expansive windows and steel-framed doors that open to a spectacular outdoor balcony. From this vantage point, enjoy sweeping city light views that transform the landscape into a mesmerizing display at night. The spacious family room, dining area, and kitchen are designed for both comfort and entertaining, allowing for a seamless flow of space bathed in natural light. The second home is a beautifully designed 1-bedroom, 1-bath residence that feels like a private sanctuary. With a full kitchen, a generous upstairs loft, and striking architectural details, this detached home is completely gated and offers the feel of an artist's retreat. Multiple windows and retractable doors bring in an abundance of light, enhancing the connection to the outdoors. The infinity-edge pool adds a resort-like ambiance, making this space a true escape from the everyday. The property also features a two-car carport with ample storage areas, ensuring functionality without compromising design. Set on an expansive lot, this unique offering is a rare opportunity to own a one-of-a-kind property that embraces the beauty of Sierra Madre while providing two independent yet harmonious living spaces. Whether you're looking for a multi-generational living setup, a guest home, or an inspiring creative space, this estate delivers in every aspect.
