Description

Welcome to "Happy Landing" - a breathtaking lakefront estate on the tranquil shores of Lake Arrowhead, California. Spanning over 9 lush acres on the picturesque North Shore, this remarkable property is steeped in history and offers a harmonious blend of natural beauty and timeless elegance. Originally developed 91 years ago by the Doheny family, it has served as a treasured mountain retreat from the hustle and bustle of Los Angeles. Tucked away amidst a forest of towering pine, cedar, and oak trees, "Happy Landing" is a sanctuary of serenity and seclusion. The main house, designed with graceful architecture, showcases exquisite craftsmanship with original woodwork, detailed paneling, and charming built-ins. Enter through the enchanting turreted foyer into a formal living room boasting high-beamed ceilings and an antique wood-burning fireplace. The main house features two spacious family bedroom suites and a whimsical children's bunk room. In addition to the main house, the estate includes two separate self-contained guest residences, each strategically located near the entrance for both privacy and convenient access to the entire compound. These charming guest houses are ideal for visitors or extended family, providing comfort and independence. A highlight of this exceptional property is the exclusive Boat House, an architectural gem along the shoreline. Constructed in 1935, this unique structure stands as a rare treasure, with no other Boat House like it since its creation. The Boat House features three inviting bedrooms, dual changing bathrooms, expansive patios, a volleyball court, a sports courts boat ramp, and two boat docks, making it the perfect venue for lakeside gatherings and aquatic adventures. With its expansive grounds, historical charm, and unparalleled lakefront amenities, "Happy Landing" is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Lake Arrowhead's history while indulging in the peace and tranquility that the area is renowned for. Don't miss the chance to experience this extraordinary property, where timeless elegance and natural beauty converge to create an idyllic retreat.
