Description

Nestled on 2.5 acres with stunning Medina River frontage, this fully furnished home is the ultimate Hill Country retreat. Surrounded by mature trees and accessed through a gated entrance, the property offers unmatched privacy, breathtaking views, and a true Texas lifestyle. Imagine tossing a kayak into the river on a sunny afternoon or relaxing beneath the starry skies at night. This home is designed for those who appreciate both adventure and tranquility. The open interior floor plan features a spacious kitchen with a large bar, creating the perfect gathering space while meals are prepared. Ample cabinetry and countertop space make cooking a joy, while covered porches extend the living space outdoors for weekend get-togethers or quiet mornings with coffee in hand. Upstairs, the primary suite is a private retreat with balcony access, offering peaceful views of the river and surrounding landscape. Two additional bedrooms complete the second floor, ensuring comfort for family and guests. Whether you're searching for a forever home or a weekend getaway, this riverside property delivers timeless charm and versatility. With its unbeatable location, natural beauty, and thoughtful design, this home is a beautiful getaway.
