Description

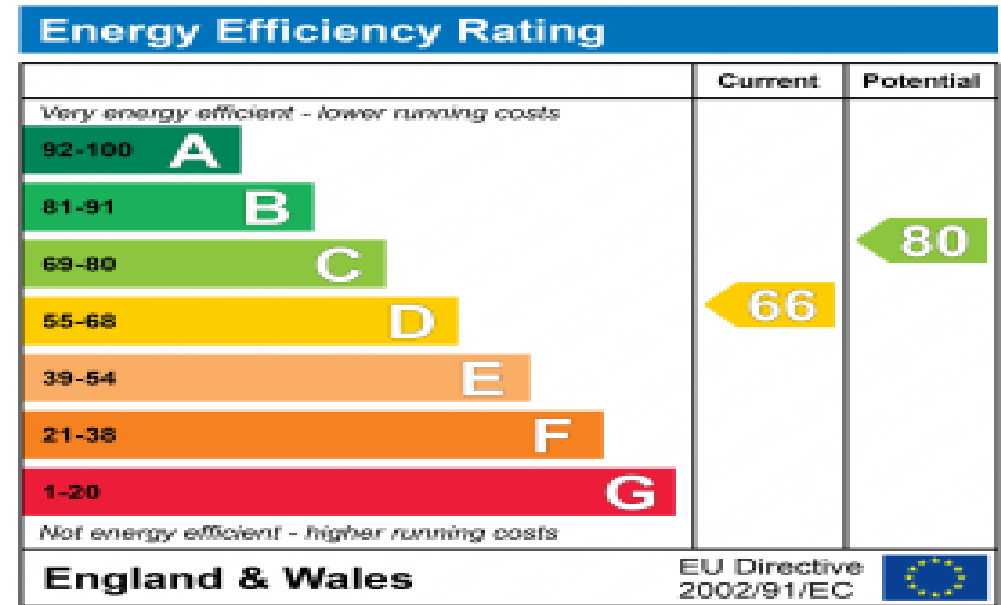

This detached home in the popular River area of Maidenhead offers predominately open plan living and benefits from ample parking and a south facing garden. Situated in a sought-after area of Maidenhead, this well presented four-bedroom detached family home offers primarily open plan family living with a southerly aspect. The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hall with a utility/boot cupboard and separate WC. A secondary family room or study is positioned at the front of the home and across the rear extends the open plan kitchen/dining/family room which connects to the garden via two sets of patio doors. The kitchen is well appointed with a suite of integrated appliances and a sociable breakfast bar. Parquet flooring extends throughout the majority of the ground floor with the kitchen benefiting from ceramic tile with underfloor heating. Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with a modern en-suite shower room, alongside a family bathroom. The house is set back from the road behind a parcel of lawn, with a block-paved driveway providing off-street parking for a number of vehicles and leading up to the garage. The rear garden is mostly lawned, with high wooden panel fencing and some mature shrubbery providing a good degree of privacy. The rear terrace affords ample space for furniture for dining outside in the warmer months. There are a number of mature borders and flowerbeds around the boundary. Situation Cliveden Mead is situated a short distance from the river Thames and Boulter's Lock and its many local amenities, including paddle boarding, rowing clubs, restaurants and promenade walks. Maidenhead offers extensive shopping and leisure facilities including a cinema, Centre for the Arts, modern leisure centre and sports and social clubs. Rail access to London Paddington is available from Taplow and Maidenhead, both of which are within easy reach and served by the Elizabeth line. Road connections are good with access to the M4 available via Junction 8/9 which leads to Heathrow Airport, central London and the M25, Property Ref Number: HAM-61094
