Description

Looking for land, privacy, and no restrictions near Fayetteville? This 3-bedroom, 1-bath ranch sits on approximately one acre outside the city limits, offering space and flexibility thats hard to find. A small pond in the backyard adds a peaceful touch and creates room for fishing, gardening, small animals, or even a mini homestead setup. With no HOA and no known restrictions, you have the freedom to truly make this property your own. The home is right at 1,000 square feet simple, manageable, and full of potential. Renovate, expand, or enjoy it as-is while benefiting from the land and location. Conveniently located near Fayetteville and Hope Mills with quick access to Highway 87 and I-95, this property offers quiet country living with an easy commute to shopping, dining, and Fort Bragg. Opportunities with acreage and a pond in this location dont come around often.
