Description

Detached three-story, 4 bed house, independent guest studio, enclosed courtyard garden, covered terrace, barn. - An impressive French house built around 1850 for a wine merchant, located in the Charentaise market town of Chalais. The detached three-story residence features four bedrooms, an independent guest annex, an enclosed courtyard garden, a covered terrace, and a barn. The interior boasts original elements such as a black-and-white tiled hallway, wooden floors, and a grand staircase. Its proximity to amenities and train connections to Angoulême and Bordeaux enhances its appeal. 1h30 from 3 airports, Bordeaux, Bergerac, and Limoges.
