Description

This beautifully presented three-bedroom, three-bathroom villa—with private pool and off-road parking—is situated in the charming area of Cortijo Grande, just minutes from the town of Turre. Its privileged position provides breath-taking views of the surrounding countryside, while still being only a short drive from all essential amenities, including shops, banks, supermarkets, medical facilities, and more. Upon entering through a gateway, you are welcomed into the private garden and expansive terraced area—an inviting outdoor space framed by mountain views. Here you'll find multiple seating areas, mature landscaped planting area, with native species, and the villa's private swimming pool. This area also benefits from a utility room and excellent storage options. The property offers several access points; the central entrance leads directly into the bright and spacious dining and kitchen area. Thanks to the large front-facing glass doors, this room is filled with natural light and provides ample storage and quality white goods. To the right of the dining area is the cosy lounge, a comfortable and inviting space featuring abundant natural light and a charming fireplace for cooler evenings. Continuing through the home, you reach the primary bedroom—a generous double room with fitted wardrobes and glass doors opening onto the rear terrace. This serene space also includes a private en-suite bathroom, complete with bathtub and separate shower. A modern guest bathroom with walk-in shower serves the main living areas. At the far end of the hallway, a second entrance offers direct access to the terrace mentioned earlier, further enhancing the home's indoor-outdoor flow. Back through the dining area, you can step out to a covered seating space and the rear terrace—another wonderful spot to enjoy the picturesque scenery. As you explore the exterior, it becomes clear that words barely do justice to the outstanding panoramic views of the countryside and mountains. Each terrace and seating nook offers its own unique perspective and atmosphere. Returning to the kitchen, a curtained archway leads to the remaining two bedrooms and an additional bathroom, equipped with a shower. Both bedrooms are fitted with wardrobes, with one arranged as a double and the other currently set up as a twin. A doorway from this area provides convenient access to the front terrace and swimming pool. This villa is truly exceptional, offering generous interiors, flexible family living, and outstanding outdoor space—perfect for relaxing, entertaining, and fully embracing the peaceful surroundings.
