Description

OFFERED CHAIN FREE. A lovely, well loved mid-century house in a highly sought-after location. Extending to just over 1300 sq ft, it has an integral garage, off-street parking and scope for modernisation. OFFERED CHAIN FREE. A lovely, 1305 sq ft, well loved mid-century house in a highly sought-after location. With wonderful large windows and a south-east facing, 48 ft garden it also has scope for modernisation, off-street parking and a garage. There is a ground floor shower room in addition to the family bathroom on the top floor, the open plan kitchen/living room is on the first floor and there is potential to convert the garage (subject to necessary consent) in order to reconfigure if desired. Situation Little Bornes is a popular 1960s Wates development off Alleyn Park in West Dulwich. It is secluded and well situated for Sydenham Hill station which is just over half a mile away and has trains to Victoria and the Thameslink line to the city via Herne Hill. West Dulwich and Gypsy Hill stations are also nearby. There are excellent schools nearby with Elm Wood Primary School 400m away, Kingswood Primary 579m away and Kingsdale Secondary School 200m away (distances measured as the crow flies).
