Description

This magnificent townhouse, arranged over several levels with only a few steps between floors, perfectly blends traditional charm with modern comfort. With spacious interiors, abundant natural light, and high-quality finishes, it is a unique home in excellent condition. The basement, cool and dry, offers a versatile space ready to be adapted to your needs—let your imagination run wild. On the ground floor, a grand entrance leads to a generous kitchen, an inviting space perfect for family gatherings. A small interior patio houses a practical laundry cupboard, along with a guest cloakroom and access to the basement. Ascending to the first floor, you'll find a bright double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom. On the second floor, a cosy living room with windows overlooking the street provides the ideal space for relaxation and social gatherings. The third level features another spacious double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, while the fourth floor offers a third double bedroom, equally bright and welcoming. From here, a charming wooden staircase leads to the generous rooftop terrace, complete with a built-in barbecue and panoramic views stretching across the countryside and the town's industrial area, with the silhouette of the church as a picturesque backdrop. With double-glazed windows, exposed wooden beams and a layout designed to maximise natural light and a sense of space, this home exudes both character and elegance. An exceptional property for those seeking comfort, charm, and breathtaking views.
