Description

Portland This 150-acre property is ideally situated beside Ken Jones Airport in Portland. It offers exceptional development potential, ranging from private estate lots to an Eco-tourism resort. With its proximity to the airport, it presents a unique opportunity to attract international clients arriving by private jet—an ideal prospect for a seasoned developer. The property features pristine, untouched beachfront complemented by a river, creating a perfect backdrop for a luxury resort. Additionally, Port Antonio Marina—just a 20-minute drive away—provides facilities for yachts and sailboats. Improved access from Kingston via the new St. Thomas Road ensures a smooth and scenic journey to the site.
