Description

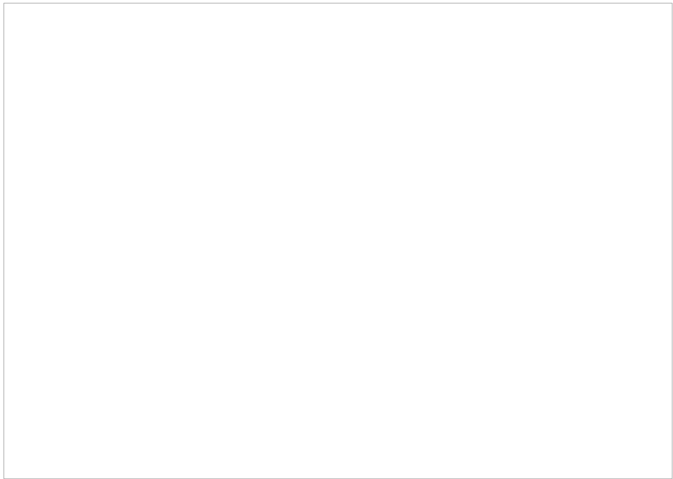

Kingston & St. Andrew Rarely does a home this special come to market in such a central location. This beautifully updated 3-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom townhome offers an unexpected sense of calm and space — a true retreat from the energy of city living. The open-concept layout invites effortless entertaining, with a generously sized eat-in kitchen flowing naturally into the living room. Beyond the kitchen, a bright and airy family room/studio adds a welcome layer of versatility — perfect as a creative space, media room, or home office. But the surprises don't stop there. A striking glazed upper level rises above, enclosed in glass walls that flood the space with natural light and frame gorgeous views of the garden below. Whether you envision a private gym, an artist's studio, or a quiet home office, this elevated retreat is a rare and inspired bonus. Two well-proportioned bedrooms on the first floor share a stylish Jack-and-Jill bathroom, with a corridor lined in smart storage solutions and generous closet space in each room. The top floor is reserved for the primary suite — a primary suite — a peaceful haven featuring a charming cottage-style bathroom, a large walk-in closet, and ample room to unwind.
