Description

A charming and characterful Edwardian mid-terraced house located in one of Muswell Hill's most desirable roads. Set back from the road with a pretty front garden. The impressive entrance hall leads to the grand front reception that features a stunning period fireplace. There is a downstairs guest w.c. The rear reception, with period fireplace leads to the bright conservatory that has been built in the side return. This wonderful space leads out to the private garden and also connects into the charming kitchen diner. The kitchen has original parquet floor and a great wood kitchen with marble work top, the kitchen leads out to the garden via French doors. The first floor has the principal bedroom with large bay window that floods the room with natural light. Another double bedroom has sash window out to the rear. The bedroom at the back has a fantastic mezzanine floor and office area that has triple aspect windows with great view of the palace. The family bathroom has pretty yellow tiles, there is a second shower room at the front of the house. The top floor has the fourth double bedroom with views out to Muswell Hill. The front (fifth) bedroom is currently arranged as a studio with smart kitchen to the side. This wonderful home would suit both families and professionals. Outside A mature private garden with patio with seating area ideal for capturing the evening sun. There is a lawn with mature shrubs and flowers that provide year round interest. At the back of the garden is a timber framed home office. Situation One of Muswell Hills most sought after and desirable roads, this pretty tree lined street backs directly onto Queens Wood and is opposite Highgate Wood. A short distance to both Highgate Village and Muswell Hill Property Ref Number: HAM-64595
