Constructed by Pulte Homes, this inviting residence features three bedrooms, a loft, and two and a half bathrooms. Exterior siding was just replaced in 2026. The main level welcomes you with 20-foot ceiling at the entry, tile flooring throughout first floor, two distinct living areas, and a formal dining space. The generously sized galley kitchen offers gas cooking, ample counter space, and an open design that overlooks the backyard while connecting seamlessly to the second living area-ideal for entertaining. All bedrooms are located upstairs for added privacy. The primary suite boasts a vaulted ceiling and enough room for a comfortable sitting area. Its en-suite bathroom includes a large double vanity, a garden tub, and a separate shower. The upstairs loft provides flexible space for a study, game room, or additional lounge area. On the main floor, patio door opens to a spacious backyard shaded by mature trees, perfect for outdoor gatherings.
