Description

Keep an eye out for more photos coming Thursday April 13 ! There is a certain kind of care you can feel in a home, and this is one of them. Thoughtfully maintained and beautifully updated, it blends move-in-ready comfort with the original character buyers are hoping to find. The hardwood floors bring warmth and soul to the space, while the natural flow of the home makes it easy to imagine everyday life here. This home offers the kind of space, flow, and backyard setup that is hard to find. Outside, the fenced backyard and oversized 2.5-car garage create a private retreat that feels far from typical city living. Inside, you'll love the large kitchen with abundant workspace and storage, seamlessly connecting to the dining area and outdoor living space for easy everyday living and entertaining. The main level offers great flexibility with a home office that could also serve as a fourth bedroom, while three bedrooms on one level provide a layout many buyers are looking for. The finished lower level adds valuable bonus space that works well for guests, a fitness studio, media room, or additional lounge area. Updated windows and a furnace replaced in 2015 add to the home's appeal. All of this in a location close to Theodore Wirth Parkway, parks, trails, neighborhood favorites like Utepils, La Doa, Cuppa Java, La Mesa, and Bryn Mawr Pizza, with quick access to the North Loop, West End, shopping, fitness, golf, and more.
