Description

Well-designed and filled with natural light, this inviting home offers a layout that truly works for modern living. The main level opens with an easy, natural flow - anchored by a spacious eat-in kitchen with granite countertops, Frigidaire Gallery appliance suite, 42" cabinetry with crown molding and generous pantry storage. The ground level unfolds into open living and dining spaces that feel connected, yet defined - ideal for both everyday living and effortless entertaining. Hardwood floors run throughout the first and second levels, adding warmth and continuity. Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms share an updated hall bath, while the third floor offers a flexible fourth bedroom - perfect for guests, work-from-home, or additional living space. The finished basement provides valuable bonus space for recreation, media or play, along with laundry space. Outside a pressure-treated deck overlooks the yard, extending living space outdoors. Additional highlights include newer windows and solar panels for improved energy efficiency. Located just one block from the Jitney with direct service to Maplewood's Midtown Direct train to NYC, and close to Maplewood Village's shops and dining - this home offers a seamless blend of comfort, function and convenience. Welcome home.
