Description

This Sunnyslope daylight Rambler with a fully set-up ADU could be yours! No HOA! The upper (main) floor features a comfortable 2-bedroom plus office, 2-bath home with large windows and even bigger views. The primary bedroom has a relaxing deck accessed through French doors—perfect for morning coffee or quiet moments. The open floor plan in the great room is ideal for entertaining. The kitchen includes a prep sink in the island, a range with downdraft exhaust, and plenty of counter space. The lower daylight basement features a spacious 2-car garage with extra storage. Bonus: a 676-square-foot apartment/ADU, complete with a small kitchen, living room, bedroom, and its own outside entry. The utility room, which connects the garage to the ADU, also contains a full bathroom. While the interior of this home is terrific, the grounds outside are just as inviting. Relax beside either of the two ponds while listening to the water and the birds. BBQ on your very private patio and enjoy the colorful landscaping and separate garden area. The detached shop can fit two cars or be used as a hobby shop or for storage. NO STR (short term rentals). Long term rentals, more than 30 days, are allowed. This lovely house is waiting for you to make it a home.
