Description

Under contract-accepting backup offers. Exceptional Ballast Point living awaits in this beautiful two-story traditional Craftsman just moments from iconic Bayshore Boulevard. With charming white Hardie board siding, a dark metal lower roof, and a 2021 second story shingle roof, this home blends classic curb appeal with thoughtful modern updates. Inside, soaring ceilings, rich wood floors, plantation shutters, and an airy open floor plan create a warm yet sophisticated feel throughout. The kitchen overlooks an oversized family room anchored by custom built-ins, while a walk-in pantry and dedicated coffee nook add both style and function. Separate living and dining rooms offer flexibility for entertaining and everyday living. All four bedrooms are located upstairs, including a spacious primary retreat with dual walk-in closets and a stunning Peacock Alley designed bathroom. Two of the secondary bedrooms share a Jack and Jill bath, and the upstairs laundry room adds convenience where it matters most. Outdoors, enjoy a low maintenance turf backyard, detached two car garage, and an inviting paved front porch perfect for relaxing evenings. Located near Tampa Yacht & Country Club, Ballast Point Park, Mad Dogs & Englishmen, Bocelli Modern Italian, and countless South Tampa favorites, this is the lifestyle you've have been waiting for.
