Description

Set atop the prestigious Kenwood neighborhood, this stately 1910 Tudor-style residence blends timeless architectural character with a thoughtful, high-end reimagining, only offered for sale for the third time in its history. Rich in period detail and craftsmanship, the home has been meticulously updated with an eye for both historic integrity and modern luxury. Positioned on a rare double-wide lot, the property commands a striking presence, enhanced by a brand new slate roof and elegant new copper gutters. Inside, refined finishes and carefully preserved architectural elements create a warm yet sophisticated atmosphere throughout. The home offers four bedrooms, including a stunning primary suite featuring marble finishes and a spa-like wet room. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the chef's kitchen pairs top-tier functionality with period-inspired design. A 390-bottle wine cellar adds an exceptional touch for collectors and hosts alike. The home features an ADU in the lower level perfect for out of town guests or an au pair for private living quarters. With all-new mechanical systems featuring zoned heating and cooling, plumbing, and electrical and expansive grounds, this residence delivers the perfect balance of historic charm, modern comfort, and enduring quality in one of Minneapolis's most sought-after neighborhoods.
