Description

Rare end-unit home offering extensive owner-quality upgrades, a highly desirable wrap-around backyard, and a northeast-facing front entrance. Thoughtfully remodeled for long-term enjoyment by its original owners. This exceptional residence showcases quality craftsmanship and premium materials throughout. Abundant natural light fills the home through a dramatic two-story cathedral window, creating a bright and inviting living space. Meticulously maintained 4-spacious bedrooms, 2.5-bathroom home offers 1,936 sq. ft. of living space with soaring vaulted ceilings on a 3,260 sq. ft. lot. Generous storages are found throughout the home, including in the attached two-car garage. A dedicated upstairs laundry room for convenience. The beautifully renovated kitchen features custom cherry cabinetry extending to the ceiling, granite countertops, a full granite backsplash, and top-of-the-line appliances. Elegant Pergo inlaid flooring on the main level, while rich Brazilian cherry hardwood flooring graces the upper level. There is no carpet anywhere in the home. All bathrooms have been fully remodeled with upgraded tubs, showers, fixtures, and lighting, creating a truly move-in-ready residence with timeless appeal. The spacious wrap-around backyard provides a rare outdoor retreat, with mature fruit-bearing blood orange, grapefruit, Meyer lemon, and fig trees, along with cypress trees that provide shade and privacy. An oversized air-conditioning unit is discreetly placed on the back side of the home to help minimize noise. The front entrance faces approximately 53 northeast, a highly desirable orientation for many buyers. Nestled in a quiet, low-traffic location within a family-oriented community known for safety and strong property values, this home offers an ideal combination of privacy and convenience. The low HOA fee of just $228 per month includes landscaping, tree trimming, exterior painting, and maintenance of fencing adjacent to common areas. Residents also enjoy a private community pool featuring indoor changing facilities, showers, and poolside seating. Ideally situated near to top-rated schools in the San Ramon Valley Unified School District, the Iron Horse Regional Trail, parks, and City Center Bishop Ranch shopping and dining, with convenient access to major commuter routes. This rare end-unit residence offers an exceptional blend of high-quality upgrades, inviting outdoor living, low-maintenance ownership, and a premier low-traffic San Ramon location.
