Description

Pope's Hill Beauty! This unique upper duplex offers nearly 1700 sq feet of living space, one of the biggest kitchen islands you'll ever see in a condo, front and back decks and garage parking! The entire top floor consists of a sprawling master suite with a bathroom featuring a soaking tub and separate shower and great storage, including a full wall of closets. The space provides a separate sitting area or room for a home office with a gas stove. The open layout of the main level makes for great entertaining. This terrific Neponset location lends itself to easy commuting options and proximity to shopping, parks and walking trails like local favorite Pope John Park. Adams Village is just a few blocks away with a variety of amenities and restaurants.
