Description

This charming corner single-family home is situated in a prime San Francisco location and offers an inviting, functional layout. The upper level features a bright living and dining area filled with abundant natural light and recessed lighting, complemented by a kitchen with granite countertops. This floor includes two comfortable bedrooms and one full bathroom. The lower level provides additional flexible rooms and full bathrooms, perfect for a home office or guest space. Outside, the property includes a bonus shed in the side yard, ideal for a hobby room or extra storage. The home is fully fenced with a separate side entrance and a low-maintenance yard. Conveniently located near City College, BART, public transit, shops, and major freeways, this home is a must-see opportunity in a well-connected neighborhood. Why buy a condo when you can own this house with all the extra space you need?
