Description

The Giving House - A truly rare offering on highly desired St. Louis Drive in Honolulu. Commanding sweeping ocean views from its prized east-west orientation, this exceptional residence is designed to capture natural light and refreshing trade winds throughout the day. Architectural surprises and thoughtful details are found throughout, adding warmth and character to every level. The flexible floor plan features 4 bedrooms and 2.5 baths upstairs, creating generous space for living and entertaining, while a separate one-bedroom, one-bath downstairs offers ideal potential for multi generation guests, or long-term rental income. Step outside to an abundant edible yard with mature plantings, offering both beauty and bounty. With versatility, view, and income potential combined in one property, this is truly the house that keeps on giving - a rare opportunity to own a distinctive island retreat in a highly desirable Honolulu location.
