Description

Step back in time while enjoying modern luxury in this stunning 1927 Spanish style home, located in the heart of historic Midtown Columbus. This home perfectly balances its original architectural soul with high-end, contemporary updates. From the street, you're greeted by the iconic red-tile roof, arched windows, and a signature decorative parapet that gives this home its unique curb appeal. Inside, the layout is designed for both elegant entertaining and cozy everyday living. Original architectural details, including arched entryways, traditional lanterns, and classic molding. Spacious living areas including a light-filled living room, a formal dining room perfect for dinner parties, and a versatile sunroom—ideal for a home office or breakfast area. The new custom built-ins in the sunroom add character, extra storage and additional cozy seating. The entryway of the home also boasts custom built-in storage closets and drawers, and plenty of space to hang coats and bags upon entry. Escape to a primary bedroom designed for true restoration. This expansive suite offers plenty of space to unwind, easily accommodating a king-sized bed, a quiet reading nook, or even a dedicated lounging area. Flooded with natural light, the room feels both airy and intimate. The centerpiece of the room is the custom-built designer closet system. Thoughtfully integrated into the architecture of the space, these built-ins offer floor-to-ceiling shelving and specialized hanging rods to keep everything in its place. Beautifully finished cabinetry that adds a touch of sophistication to the room's aesthetic. Recently updated primary bath features custom cabinetry, a sleek walk-in shower, a spacious walk-in closet, and stunning herringbone tile work. Step outside to the enjoy the fenced backyard, a welcoming front porch flanked by classic lion statuary. Back on market due to no fault of seller or listing.
