Description

This four-bedroom, three-bathroom home is situated in a premier location, just under one mile from the beach. The approximately 2,300-square-foot residence has been meticulously remodeled, featuring a stunning, remodeled kitchen with high-end finishes and craftsmanship. The bathrooms have also been remodeled using the finest tiles and impeccable workmanship. The home boasts a dramatic, modern staircase and a mid-century style front door that sets the tone for the stylish interior. Brand new flooring has been installed throughout the property, complemented by trendy and sophisticated lighting fixtures. The oversized three-car garage and large driveway provide ample parking and storage space. This well-appointed home is situated in a neighborhood without a homeowner's association, offering residents the freedom to personalize their livable space.
