Description

This property qualifies for a lender credit up to $5500 towards closing costs! Experience elevated city living in this stunning east-facing condo located in the historic Midtown Exchange Building. Situated on the 10th floor, this light-filled home offers stunning views, soaring ceilings, oversized windows, and an inviting open layout designed for comfortable urban living. The updated interior features fresh paint, a movable kitchen island, in-unit laundry, and a brand-new stainless steel refrigerator and dishwasher. Generous storage space and private resident parking-with the option to install an electric vehicle charger-add everyday convenience. Residents enjoy an impressive array of amenities, including a fitness center, theater/media room, 24-hour security, underground parking, and a rooftop community room and patio complete with grilling stations, seating areas, and planter boxes. Located directly above Midtown Global Market, you'll have immediate access to a vibrant collection of restaurants, shops, and entertainment. Outdoor recreation is just steps away with the Midtown Greenway on one side and Powderhorn Park just two blocks from your door. With easy access to freeways, public transportation, pet-friendly living, and the ease of one-level living, this exceptional condo perfectly combines historic character, modern comfort, and an unbeatable community atmosphere. Limited number of Rentals allowed, rental cap is not met.
