Description

An elegant six-bedroom period home blending original character with modern living, set within beautiful gardens with sea views, extensive parking and spacious family accommodation close to St Helier. Tucked away along a peaceful country lane on the edge of St Helier, Thornhill is a beautifully restored period residence that perfectly balances timeless character with modern family living. Believed to date back to the turn of the 20th century and recognised as part of Jersey's architectural heritage, this exceptional home offers an enviable combination of tranquillity, space and convenience, all within easy reach of town amenities. Lovingly maintained and thoughtfully enhanced by the current owners, the property retains an abundance of original features, including decorative mouldings, hardwood flooring and charming period detailing, while contemporary upgrades ensure effortless day-to-day living. Arranged over three floors, the accommodation comprises six bedrooms, four bathrooms and a selection of elegant and versatile reception spaces perfectly suited to both family life and entertaining. At the heart of the home lies a stunning kitchen and dining space flowing seamlessly into a substantial extension that creates a bright and spacious living area filled with natural light. Air-conditioning adds year-round comfort, while large windows frame picturesque countryside surroundings and distant sea views. The flexible layout also includes a generously sized additional hallway leading to one of the bedrooms, creating an ideal separate space for older children, visiting family or a nanny suite. Outside, the home continues to impress with extensive gardens, expansive lawns and a superb patio terrace designed for outdoor dining and entertaining. A gated driveway provides parking for at least 12 vehicles alongside a double garage with additional loft storage. Combining heritage charm, generous accommodation and an idyllic setting, Thornhill presents a rare opportunity to acquire a truly special family home in one of Jersey's most desirable edge-of-town locations.

Living Space Elegant and versatile living accommodation arranged over three floors, featuring four reception rooms, a spacious kitchen/dining area and a stunning extended family room designed for modern living and entertaining.

Sleeping Space Six well-proportioned bedrooms and four bathrooms provide flexible family accommodation, including a separate bedroom area ideal for older children, guests or nanny accommodation. Plus 2 x WC's.

Outside Beautiful private gardens surround the property, with expansive lawns, a sunny patio terrace, and peaceful countryside, complemented by distant sea views.

Parking A gated driveway offers extensive parking for at least 12 vehicles alongside a double garage with useful loft storage above.

Additional Information A charming period home, believed to form part of Jersey's architectural heritage. The property is unknowingly attached to another property (to the rear corner behind the utility room). Services Mains water and drains, oil-fired central heating and double glazing throughout.
