Description

This inviting single-story brick ranch home, built in 1963, offers three bedrooms and two full bathrooms in a comfortable, functional layout. Enjoy effortless one-level living with the added convenience of an attached two-car garage. Key highlights include a full basement with excellent potential for extra storage, a workshop, or future recreation space, plus reliable gas heating. Set on a spacious lot in the established Brookshire South neighborhood, the property provides plenty of outdoor space in a welcoming residential community. Conveniently located on Columbus' west side and offers easy access to parks, shopping, local amenities, and major highways. With timeless ranch appeal and room to personalize, it's a wonderful opportunity to own a solid home in a desirable location.
