Description

Tucked beneath the shade of sprawling live oaks in the heart of Kill Devil Hills, 1710 Sea Swept Road offers the kind of location and functionality people are searching for. This 3-bedroom, 2-bath home features maple cabinetry, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and beautiful hardwood floors that add warmth and character throughout the home. Outside, the fenced backyard creates the perfect setup for dogs, kids, cookouts, or quiet evenings under the trees, while the detached shed offers additional storage for beach gear, tools, and toys. Located in central Kill Devil Hills, this home sits just three blocks from the 3rd Street sound access, one of the locals favorite spots to catch an Outer Banks sunset. You're also conveniently close to beaches, restaurants, shopping, and everything that makes life on the OBX so special. An added bonus is the fully enclosed permitted storage area underneath the home, offering substantial opportunities for future use, expansion, workshop space, or additional functionality. Whether you're searching for a primary residence, second home, or investment opportunity, 1710 Sea Swept Road offers the kind of character, location, and flexibility that makes people fall in love with. This is the kind of Kill Devil Hills property that feels like home the second you pull in the driveway. New septic drainfield installed in 2020. Some photos have been virtually staged to illustrate the property's potential. Furniture and decor are digitally rendered.
