Description

Experience the timeless charm of "Old Hawaii" in this beautifully preserved 1917 plantation-style home in highly sought-after Manoa. Perched on a generous level corner lot with Honolulu city views, this single-level residence is ready for the next generation of memory-making. Sunlight and gentle trade winds fill the spacious living room through original double-hung windows, highlighting rich Ohia hardwood floors and classic details like wainscoting and a built-in leaded glass dining buffet. Enjoy indoor-outdoor living on the expansive refurbished makai-side porch, perfect for relaxing or gathering. A later addition with separate entry adds flexibility with two bedrooms, a bathroom, den, and kitchenette - ideal for extended living or guests. The property is graced by two majestic monkey pod trees, designated Exceptional Trees by the City with tax benefits, along with a Pope mango tree prized for its exceptional flavor. Located in the coveted Noelani School District and with Mid-Pacific Institute, Punahou School and the University of Hawaii nearby, this home blends its enduring spirit with a highly convenient setting.
