Description

Welcome to this beautiful brick home located in the highly sought-after Green Island Hills community. Tucked away with a private, wooded backyard, this home offers both space and a peaceful setting. Inside, you'll find a flexible layout featuring two potential primary suites, giving you options for multi-generational living or guest accommodations. Two additional bedrooms provide plenty of space for family, guests, or a home office. The home also features all new windows and new LVP flooring, adding both style and efficiency throughout. The main living area is open and inviting, highlighted by cathedral ceilings, a cozy gas fireplace, and a wet bar that makes it easy to entertain. A sunroom just off the living space brings in natural light and offers a relaxing spot to enjoy views of the backyard. The kitchen is equipped with granite countertops, a trash compactor, and garbage disposal, along with a separate dining room for more formal gatherings. A dedicated laundry room adds everyday convenience. With its spacious layout, thoughtful features, and desirable location, this home is ready for its next owner to make it their own.
