Description

Positioned at the end of a gated cul-de-sac in Miami Shores, this fully renovated 3-bedroom, 3-bath residence delivers privacy, space, and convenience in one of the area's most connected locations. Set just off Biscayne Boulevard, the home enjoys immediate access to everything while maintaining a quiet, tucked-away feel that's unexpected for its central position. Inside, the home opens to a spacious and well-executed layout, highlighted by an oversized primary suite with a substantial custom closet and direct access to the pool. The scale, flow, and natural light throughout create a sense of comfort typically found in larger homes. Designed for effortless South Florida living, the outdoor space functions as a true extension of the home, complete with a covered terrace, outdoor kitchen, cabana bath, and a private pool setting that feels like a retreat. Located in a low-traffic pocket with gated privacy and a garage, this property offers a rare combination of accessibility, seclusion, and lifestyle in Miami Shores.
