Description

Hello. I've been waiting for you. For many years, I have been lovingly cared for by the only family I've ever known. When I was first imagined, I wasn't designed to be just another cookie-cutter house. My owners wanted me to be different-thoughtfully planned, beautifully functional, and built to stand apart from the crowd. Every detail, from my wider staircases to my oversized bedrooms and flexible living spaces, was chosen with purpose. Over the years, I've watched wildlife wander through my backyard, hosted friends and family gatherings on my patios, and provided a peaceful retreat from the busy world outside. My owners have cared for me with extraordinary pride and dedication, investing more than $150,000 in updates to ensure I remain beautiful, comfortable, and current. You could say I've enjoyed a complete makeover over the years-new siding, extensive concrete improvements, lush landscaping, updated lighting, fresh paint, luxury flooring, quartz countertops, beautifully remodeled bathrooms, and so much more. Like someone who believes in aging gracefully while keeping up with the times, I've continually reinvented myself while maintaining the character that makes me unique. My exterior features a remarkable two-story shed with loft storage, underground sprinklers, expanded driveway and parking areas, and carefully maintained landscaping. Inside, you'll find solid oak doors, a farmhouse sink, stainless steel appliances, a gas range, updated bathrooms, and thoughtful touches throughout. My primary suite overlooks the wooded backyard and offers a peaceful place to begin and end each day. The main-floor fourth bedroom provides flexibility for guests, a home office, exercise room, or whatever your next chapter requires. My owners are now preparing for an exciting new adventure of their own. While I'll miss them dearly, I'm ready for a new story to begin. I'm hoping to welcome owners who will appreciate the craftsmanship, attention to detail, and love that have shaped me into the home I am today. If you've been searching for a home with character, quality, and a history of exceptional care, I would love to meet you. I'll be ready to welcome my next owners after August 12th. But feel free to visit me now to see if we are a match. Perhaps my best chapter is still waiting to be written.
