Description

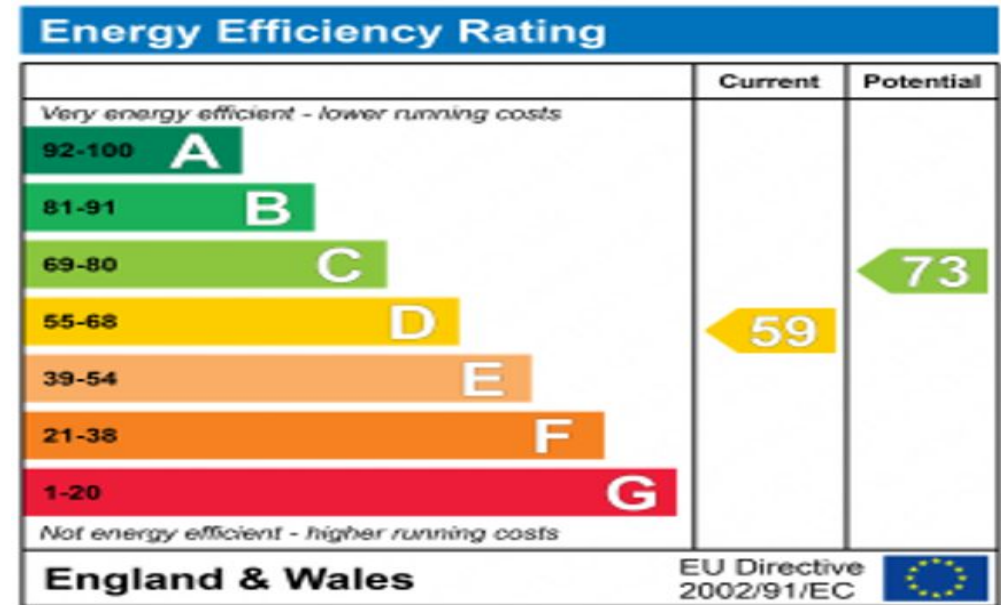

A handsome double-fronted Victorian detached home, set within a sought-after residential road in Maidenhead and offering generous, well-balanced accommodation arranged over three floors. A handsome double-fronted late Victorian detached home, set within a sought-after residential road in Maidenhead and offering generous, well-balanced accommodation arranged over three floors. The property retains a wealth of character and charm, with high ceilings, bay-fronted reception rooms and original detailing evident throughout. The ground floor is arranged around a welcoming entrance hallway, leading to a bay-fronted sitting room and a separate dining room, both ideally suited for formal and family use and featuring wood burning stoves set within attractive fireplaces. To the rear, the kitchen/breakfast room forms the heart of the home, providing a sociable space with direct access onto the garden, alongside a useful utility room and cloakroom. On the first floor there are five bedrooms, arranged to provide flexibility for family living, guest accommodation or home working. The main bedroom has a dressing area and en suite bathroom, a second bedroom has an en suite shower room and the remaining bedrooms are served by the family bathroom. A loft room on the second floor offers further versatile space. The property is approached via a private driveway providing off-street parking and access to a garage. To the rear, the garden is mainly laid to lawn and complemented by a generous terrace and patio areas, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining. Mature planting provides a good degree of privacy, creating an attractive and well-screened setting. Situation The Crescent is a popular and convenient residential address within Maidenhead, ideally located for access to the town centre and railway station (0.6 miles), which provides direct services to London Paddington via the mainline services and the Elizabeth Line. The area is well served by a variety of local amenities including cafes and restaurants in the regenerated Waterside Quarter within the town centre, parks with play areas and leisure facilities/sports clubs. The town has a multi-screen cinema and Centre for the Arts, alongside a number of highly regarded schools, both state and independent. Maidenhead also benefits from excellent road connections via the M4, M40 and M25, providing links to Heathrow Airport and the wider motorway network. Property Ref Number: HAM-65460
