Description

Set across six impeccably designed floors, House 3 offers 3,604 sq. ft. of refined living space with five bedrooms, elegant entertaining areas, Cinema room, separate studio room, lift access to all floors, and bespoke interiors curated for modern London living. House 3 at The Lancelot Collection presents an exceptionally rare opportunity to acquire a meticulously designed five-bedroom townhouse in the heart of Knightsbridge. Spanning approximately 3,604 sq. ft., this extraordinary residence combines modern architecture with classic sophistication across six beautifully appointed levels. Behind the striking Portland stone façade and cast-iron crisscross windows, the interiors reveal a seamless blend of timeless craftsmanship and modern functionality. The elegant entrance lobby introduces smoked oak detailing, refined marble finishes and a sculptural staircase which sets the tone throughout the home. The expansive kitchen and dining level on the first floor has been designed for both entertaining and everyday living, complete with premium Gaggenau appliances, marble worktops, bronze mirrored splashbacks and smoked oak timber flooring. The formal living room at ground level provides an elegant retreat with excellent natural light and beautifully balanced proportions with private patio. The lower floors offer an exceptional lifestyle experience, including a retro-inspired Cinema room with bespoke bar, a private studio finished with contemporary oak panelling, which can be utilised as a yoga studio, gym, wine cellar or a prayer room. A basement utility room and extensive storage. Featuring five bedrooms in total, three generous bedrooms are arranged across the upper levels, including a luxurious principal suite occupying the full second floor, with dressing room and marble bathroom. Three of the bedrooms benefit from en-suite bathrooms, alongside an additional family bathroom on the third floor. There are an additional two bedrooms on the lower ground levels, both on en-suite with skylights. The residence has been thoughtfully designed with fully integrated smart home technology, including Lutron HomeWorks lighting, climate control systems for the underfloor heating and air conditioning, video entry, and comprehensive alarm systems, delivering both convenience and security at the highest level. Two private and secure underground parking spaces are available by separate negotiation. With lift access throughout the property, and every detail carefully considered, House 3 delivers an uncompromising standard of luxury in one of London's most prestigious postcodes. Outside Private Patio Situation Positioned moments from Harrods, Hyde Park and Sloane Street, The Lancelot Collection enjoys one of London's most coveted addresses. Residents are surrounded by world-renowned shopping destinations including Harrods and Harvey Nichols, alongside Michelin-starred restaurants, private members clubs and luxury hotels. Knightsbridge is celebrated for its grand architecture, garden squares and cosmopolitan atmosphere, offering a lifestyle defined by exclusivity and convenience. From the Serpentine Gallery and the V&A Museum to acclaimed dining destinations such as Zuma, Scalini and Petrus. Every aspect of prime central London living is within effortless reach. Knightsbridge underground station is just a 1 minute walk away which gives you direct access to the Piccadilly line, and can take you to London Heathrow in just 45 minutes.
