Description

An immaculate three bedroom apartment with views over the rooftops towards the New Fortress and Kremasti square. This stylish apartment has been carefully renovated by its current owners to a very high standard with all modern conveniences. Located on the second floor and spread over two levels, the main door leads into a spacious and bright open plan room with views over the Venetian well square. A modern kitchen and sitting/dining area has been designed with all comforts in mind, with exposed stone walls and wooden floors adding character to the room. Multiple windows on both sides let the light flood, creating a lovely atmosphere. There are two bedrooms and shower room on this level. Upstairs, the main bedroom has an ensuite bathroom and cleverly designed storage space. There is air conditioning installed throughout the apartment, with double glazed windows and brand new roof. Adjacent to the apartment is totally separate studio, complete with fully equipped kitchen, sitting area, shower room and mezzanine bedroom. Please ask us for more information on this (some of the photos in the slideshow are of the studio unit).
