Description

This property embodies Provençal charm in an environment of absolute tranquillity. The villa offers a privileged living environment, characterised by a beautiful view stretching from the countryside to the sea. The interiors are distinguished by their generous volumes. The villa comprises a total of 6 bedrooms, a very large bright living room and a spacious, convivial kitchen. This layout is perfectly suited for a large family, but also for setting up a private practice in the annex. The configuration and location of the villa also make it an excellent opportunity for seasonal rentals. The exterior is an invitation to relax, with beautiful sunny terraces and a delightful landscaped garden featuring a swimming pool and adjoining pool house. This charming property offers both an exceptional living environment and a most interesting potential for use. Agency fees payable by vendor
