Description

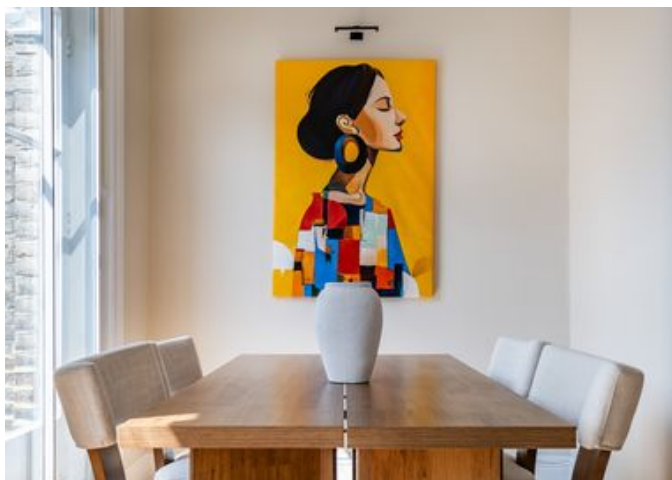

Set across the first and second floors of an elegant Victorian conversion, this beautifully refurbished three-bedroom apartment combines period charm with contemporary living. The apartment offers a west-facing reception room, bespoke eat-in kitchen, two private balconies, two bathrooms, excellent built-in storage and a lease exceeding 900 years. Occupying the first and second floors of an elegant Victorian period conversion, this beautifully conceived duplex apartment has been comprehensively refurbished to an exceptional standard, creating a home that effortlessly balances timeless period elegance with refined contemporary living. Rich in natural light, the property retains an array of original architectural details, including impressive ceiling heights and characterful features, whilst offering beautifully considered interiors designed for modern lifestyles. Arranged over two floors, the accommodation centres around an elegant west-facing reception room, where large sash windows and French doors open onto a private balcony, providing a wonderful setting for both entertaining and everyday living. The bespoke eat-in kitchen has been thoughtfully designed with both style and practicality in mind and enjoys direct access to a second private balcony, creating an ideal space for morning coffee or al fresco dining. The principal accommodation comprises two generous double bedrooms, complemented by a versatile third bedroom, equally suited as a study or guest room. Two beautifully appointed bathrooms, a dedicated laundry area and extensive built-in storage complete the accommodation, while an exceptionally long lease in excess of 900 years offers further peace of mind. Situation Situated on the attractive tree-lined Glazbury Road, the property enjoys an enviable position moments from the excellent amenities of Barons Court and Kensington Olympia. The extensive transport connections of Barons Court Underground Station (Piccadilly and District lines), together with West Kensington Underground Station and Kensington (Olympia), are all within easy walking distance, whilst the boutiques, cafés and renowned shopping of High Street Kensington are also close by. Combining elegant proportions, thoughtfully designed interiors and an outstanding West London location, this is a home perfectly suited to contemporary London living. Property Ref Number: HAM-66446
