Description

Spacious five bedroom villa with pool and large plot Albufeira Albufeira e Olhos de Água Guia This villa is distinguished by its generous, versatile and well-distributed spaces. The first floor, accessible by independent stairs and entrance from the outside, includes a large living room, separate equipped kitchen, bedroom and an independent bathroom. A large terrace overlooking the countryside, garden and pool. On the ground floor, one of the entrance to the house is through the laundry room, which leads to a spacious kitchen, with an informal dining area. A separate pantry completes this space and offers significant additional storage capacity. Also on the ground floor, the heart of the house is occupied by an impressive living and dining room with a natural stone fireplace that forms the central point. The living room has direct access to the pool and surrounding vegetation, making this room a cozy and versatile space, ideal for both family moments or receiving guests. On this floor there is also a central corridor crossing the house and leading to the private spaces. It includes three bedrooms, each with its own bathroom. An additional bedroom, currently converted into a sports area. A fourth separate bathroom completes this floor. The villa maintains a traditional style and offers real potential for modernization and customization in some rooms. Outside, the property benefits from a large swimming pool surrounded by a terrace. The vegetation, which includes several fruit trees, creates a green and pleasant environment throughout the surrounding land. Two small exterior annexes, currently used as warehouses, complete the property, which also has a water hole. At Cerro Novo, we pride ourselves on helping our clients find properties that fully match their lifestyle and goals. With over 45 years of experience in the Algarve real estate market, our team accompanies you at every stage of your project, offering you personalized service, perfect knowledge of the market, and professional support for a serene and confident buying experience. - REF: CN10796
