Description

Cannes, just a few minutes from La Croisette and the city centre, within a sought-after residential estate, this elegant, fully renovated contemporary villa enjoys a privileged setting and pleasant open views. Formerly owned by renowned dancer and choreographer Rosella Hightower, the villa stands out for its generous proportions, the quality of its renovation and the seamless flow of its living spaces. The main level features spacious reception areas comprising a large living room, dining room and a fully equipped contemporary kitchen, complemented by a separate back kitchen. A games room with a billiard area and bar, as well as a large laundry room, complete this floor. Upstairs, four en-suite bedrooms each feature bespoke dressing rooms and beautifully crafted joinery. Accessible by private lift, the principal suite occupies the entire top floor and opens onto a vast private terrace, providing an intimate and secluded retreat. Outside, the property is set within an attractive landscaped garden enhanced by a swimming pool, generous terraces and pergolas, creating a variety of inviting spaces for relaxation and entertaining. An elegant property with a relaxed contemporary atmosphere, combining generous volumes, comfort and quality of life in a particularly desirable location, within easy reach of central Cannes and La Croisette.
